Lakshmi Ganapathi Stotram English Meaning (Verse by Verse)

Verse 1 – Meaning

Om. Salutations to Vighnaraja (the king, or lord, of obstacles), who bestows all happiness and comfort (sarva-saukhya-pradāyine). Salutations to him who destroys the wicked and the inauspicious (duṣṭa-ariṣṭa-vināśāya), who is the Supreme (parāya) and the Supreme Self (paramātmane).

Verse 2 – Meaning

He is Lambodara (the big-bellied one), of great valour (mahā-vīrya), shining with a serpent worn as his sacred thread (nāga-yajñopaśobhita). He wears the half-moon (ardha-candra-dhara), is a deva (divine being), and destroys whole hosts of obstacles (vighna-vyūha-vināśana).

Verse 3 – Meaning

Om, followed by the seed (bīja) syllables hrāṃ hrīṃ hrūṃ hraiṃ hrauṃ hraḥ: repeated salutations to Heramba (heramba-ya namo namaḥ). You are the giver of one's own success (sva-siddhi-prada); may you be the giver of Siddhi (accomplishment) and Buddhi (wisdom) (siddhi-buddhi-prado bhava).

Verse 4 – Meaning

O lover of modaka (modaka-priya), you always grant the object one has in mind (cintitārtha-prada). O giver of boons (varadāyaka), you are worshipped with vermilion and red garments (sindūra-aruṇa-vastraiḥ pūjita).

Verse 5 – Meaning

The devoted person (bhaktimān naraḥ) who recites this Ganapati stotra (idaṃ gaṇapati-stotraṃ yaḥ paṭhet): Lakshmi herself does not leave his body (deha) and home (geha). This is the promise of the phalashruti.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Meaning

The word “Ganapati” means the lord of the ganas, and “Lakshmi” stands for wealth, fortune and auspiciousness. Lakshmi Ganapati is the form of Ganapati who not only removes obstacles but is also worshipped to bless devotees with prosperity. He is commonly listed as the twelfth of the 32 forms of Ganapati and is described as seated with his consorts Siddhi (accomplishment) and Buddhi (wisdom).

The stotram follows this idea. The first verse salutes him as Vighnaraja, the giver of every comfort. The second describes his form. The third invokes Heramba with seed syllables and asks for Siddhi and Buddhi. The fourth praises him as the giver of desired objects, and the last verse states the fruit of recitation. Read the verse-by-verse meaning in your language in the sections above.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Mantra Benefits

The phalashruti of this stotram says that Lakshmi does not leave the body and home of the devoted person who recites it. Devotees of Lakshmi Ganapati also pray for wealth, protection and the fulfilment of their wishes.

Lakshmi Stotram Benefits

Lakshmi stotras in general are recited for peace at home, steadiness in livelihood and gratitude for what one has. The benefit most often mentioned for this stotram is the one in its own phalashruti: the continued presence of Lakshmi (prosperity) with the devotee.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Mantras – Beej, Moola, Gayatri and Dhyan Mantra

Besides the stotram, devotees search for short Lakshmi Ganapati mantras. For japa with a fixed count, it is good to receive the mantra from your guru or family priest.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Beej Mantra

The two key seed syllables are Shreem (श्रीं), the beej of Lakshmi, and Gam (गं), the beej of Ganapati. The stotram itself also contains a line of seed syllables in its third verse: ॐ ह्रां ह्रीं ह्रूं ह्रैं ह्रौं ह्रः, offered to Heramba Ganapati.

Lakshmi Ganesh Beej Mantra and Moola Mantra

ॐ श्रीं गं सौभाग्यगणपतये वरवरद सर्वजनं मे वशमानय स्वाहा ॥

Om Shreem Gam Saubhagya Ganapataye Vara Varada Sarvajanam Me Vashamanaya Svaha. This is the Lakshmi Ganapati (Lakshmi Ganesh) mantra.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Beej Mantra in Telugu (లక్ష్మీ గణపతి మూల మంత్రం)

ఓం శ్రీం గం సౌభాగ్యగణపతయే వరవరద సర్వజనం మే వశమానయ స్వాహా ॥

Lakshmi Ganapathi Gayatri Mantra

Lakshmi Ganesh Gayatri Mantra

In Lakshmi Ganapati worship, devotees chant the Ganesha Gayatri and the Lakshmi Gayatri together:

ॐ एकदन्ताय विद्महे वक्रतुण्डाय धीमहि । तन्नो दन्ती प्रचोदयात् ॥
ॐ महालक्ष्म्यै च विद्महे विष्णुपत्न्यै च धीमहि । तन्नो लक्ष्मीः प्रचोदयात् ॥

Lakshmi Ganesh Dhyan Mantra

The common dhyana verse of Ganesha, recited before the stotram:

शुक्लाम्बरधरं विष्णुं शशिवर्णं चतुर्भुजम् ।
प्रसन्नवदनं ध्यायेत् सर्वविघ्नोपशान्तये ॥

Lakshmi Ganesh Mantra for Diwali

On Diwali, Lakshmi and Ganesha are worshipped together. Simple mantras used during the puja are “ॐ श्री गणेशाय नमः”, “ॐ श्री महालक्ष्म्यै नमः” and “ॐ गं गणपतये नमः”.

After the puja you can recite the Lakshmi Ganapathi Stotram from this page.

Which Side of Ganesha Should Laxmi Be Kept?

How to Chant Lakshmi Ganapathi Stotram

1. Bathe, sit facing the picture or idol of Ganapati, and light a lamp if you wish.
2. Start with the dhyana verse and “ॐ गं गणपतये नमः”.
3. Read the five verses slowly in the script you are comfortable with. Read the meaning once so that you know what you are saying.
4. Close with a short prayer and offer thanks. Recite with a calm mind and full devotion.

Lakshmi Ganapathi Stotram, Marakatha Stotram and Runa Vimochana Stotram

Marakatha Sri Lakshmi Ganapathi Stotram is a separate, longer stotram. Runa Vimochana Ganapathi Stotram (in Telugu and Hindi) is also a different stotram; read it on our page for Rinmochan Ganapati Stotra.
